Happy Easter!
Dear readers and authors,

Easter is one of the most important Christian events of the year. Commemorating Christ’s Resurrection, we would like to offer you our warmest regards on this bright holiday. May the light of the Resurrection always illuminate your path toward righteousness. Christ always warms you in good deeds.

Let’s join forces in the name of creative works in ending wars and conflicts for whatever reasons there may be, wherever they may occur, and help deliver peace to humanity.

The New Eastern Outlook editorial board.